A visit to the Thames River Police Museum, Wapping Monday 15th July, 11am Optional lunch after the visit at Il Bordello restaurant

The Thames River Police Museum is located in what was once the carpenter's workshop at Wapping Police Station. Situated within the headquarters of the Metropolitan Police's Marine Police Unit, the Museum offers visitors a unique insight into the history of the World's first police force.

Exhibits include uniforms and documents, which trace the history of the Thames River Police from its inception in 1798 to the present day. There is also a fine collection of the every-day "Hardware" of policing from handcuffs to cutlasses.

Because the museum is housed within a working police station, our private visit will be hosted by the Honourary Curator, Robert Jeffries, a retired serving officer with many years' experience of policing the river. The visit will be approximately 1 hour. The cost for the tour is £20 per person including VAT.

If you would like to continue your day by taking lunch at Il Bordello Restaurant where a table has been reserved for our party, then please indicate that you will require lunch when you book.

To book the tour: kindly transfer £20 per person to The Bridge Ward Club account: sort code: 40-15-05: account number: 61267027: reference: TRP + surname and send a confirmation email to me at: Kathryn.Williams@talktalk.net, or text to 07503 899889, alternatively send a cheque made payable to 'Bridge Ward Club' to Leicester House, Moorfield Road, Duxford, Cambridge CB22 4PS. In all cases, kindly supply names of attendees and intention to have lunch at Il Bordello.

Numbers are limited to 15 for this date, so please book early!

Kind wishes
